

Carolyn Freeman

press

DATE:

July 5, 2004

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Chris D. Unthank
Director of Publicity and Marketing
Southern Spin
chris@southernspin.com
PHONE: (615) 898-7228

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASECarolyn Freeman Announces New, Fully-Updated Website

MAUD, Texas – Carolyn Freeman is pleased to announce the unveiling of her new, fully-updated webpage. The new page went live a few weeks ago and was designed by the staff of Southern Spin.

"I think Southern Spin did a great job on the site," said Carolyn. "It makes me proud to be able to send people to this site."

"We've been excited about working with Carolyn," said Amy Marie Unthank, Director of Internet Promotions for Southern Spin. "This is just another step in her getting her name out there."

The site is an exhaustive telling of Carolyn and her ministry. It features a biography, contact information, a photo gallery, schedules, and more. In addition, Carolyn's newly updated press kit is also available for download on the site.

You can check out the new webpage at <http://www.carolynfreeman.com> .

About Carolyn Freeman

Carolyn Freeman is a Southern Gospel soloist based out of Maud, Texas. She has a rich family history, which includes singers, songwriters, and musicians. Freeman has one album to her credit, Save Me a Spot.

About Southern Spin

Southern Spin is a newly founded organization formed in order to groups of artists in the Southern Gospel and Country Gospel genres. The company strives to help their artists/partners establish themselves in the industry by providing publicity, marketing, web design, and much more.

###

